LATE FEES:

A late fee will be added to any invoice past due by 10 days. Accounts past due are at risk for withdrawal and collections. Please contact the school office as soon as possible if you know you will be late on a payment.

WITHDRAWAL:

Students who withdraw during the school year (for any reason) must give a 30-day notice of withdrawal or will owe a month of tuition. Accounts must be paid in full for records to be released to the next school. Book and material fees are non-refundable at any time of the school year. Only consumable books go home after a student withdraws from the school.

Students expelled for behavior or academics will owe one full month of tuition. (i.e., the student is asked to leave on the 16th of the month and will still owe for the following month's tuition.)

Students must maintain at least a 70% (C) in all subjects to remain at DP Christian School. Students below the 70% mark will be put on academic probation. Grades that are not maintained after 30 days are subject to expulsion.

Families who withdraw before the end of the school year will only receive unused tuition minus any discounts given (sibling, military, pastoral, pay in full discount, etc.).
